"This is a very exciting moment for Ollie's. Today marks the 10th anniversary of our Company's initial public offering on the Nasdaq Stock Exchange and, later this week, we will Grand Open our 600th store in Belmont, NH, expanding into our 34th state," said Eric van der Valk. "Ollie's is a special company, that was founded, built, and is operated by bargainauts, who are passionate about finding amazing deals and selling Good Stuff Cheap. I would like to thank all our team members, past and present, who have contributed to our growth and success. While we celebrate our 600th store milestone, we are focused on the tremendous white space opportunity ahead as we accelerate growth at a time when there are so many abandoned customers, product, and real estate in the marketplace."

Mr. van der Valk continued, "It was an honor to represent the Ollie's team and ring the Nasdaq opening bell earlier today in celebration of our 10th anniversary as a public company and the opening of our 600th store. We take a lot of pride in the way we operate our business. We value being a publicly traded company as it holds us to a high standard, provides financial transparency, and increases our visibility with valued business and merchandise partners."

The Nasdaq Opening Bell ringing ceremony took place today at 9:30 a.m. Eastern Time at the Nasdaq MarketSite. A video of the ceremony can be viewed at <https://www.nasdaq.com/marketsite/bell-ringing-ceremony>.
